

ALISTAIR ROBERTSON

Sales & Leasing Broker
Wellington, New Zealand

alistair.robertson@colliers.com

Alistair has been involved in finance and property in Wellington for over 30 years. Originally choosing a career in banking Alistair worked for several major financial institutions mainly in the area of commercial and corporate funding including property finance for corporate and high net worth clients.

From 2000 Alistair has undertaken agency work mainly in the sale of properties in the greater Wellington area specialising in the negotiating of high value assets both on and off market. Alistair has held senior positions at major international agencies including Director of Capital Markets at CBRE.

This combination of finance and property experience has given Alistair a unique and in depth knowledge of the Wellington commercial property market.
