Billy Powers

Area of Expertise

Billy Powers specializes in industrial advisory with a focus on larger distribution facilities. He works with owners and landlords to lease and sell their real estate assets.

Prior to joining Colliers, Billy has had extensive experience in servicing high value clients in the supply chain and distribution industries. His responsibilities ranged from design solutions to multi-phase project installations and implementations. Billy has worked with hundreds of clients to develop custom solutions totaling over $100 million in material handling equipment and packaging supplies. This experience provided a front-row seat understanding of the supply chain users and their facility challenges & requirements.

Billy is a graduate of Wabash College with a major in Economics. At Wabash, he was very active on campus and a member of the Men's Basketball and Volleyball Teams. He and his wife have three children enjoy spending time with family and friends.
