PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Brian Camp came to Colliers International with both a background in supply chain/operations as well as several years' experience managing his family's negotiation and sales consulting business.

Upon his arrival at Colliers, Brian immediately focused on Atlanta's largest industrial submarket, the Northeast. He spent much of his time on Tenant Rep deals, working with Douglas Biggs, Price Weaver, and Ryan Sawyer each of whom helped him to quickly produce deals for his clients. Additionally, in his first two years, Brian has worked with Doug Tyler and his property management team to help lease over 600,000 SF between the two largest industrial parks in the Norcross Industrial submarket, Northbelt Business Park and Beaver Ruin Business Center.

He has cold called and interacted with nearly every Tenant in the Northeast and has a strong working relationship with all the largest Landlords in the submarket.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Brian graduated from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 2004 as a double major with degrees in Building Construction and Management. Brian was also a full scholarship quarterback on the varsity football team. He was a three year letterman and was awarded several endowments for excellence in academics and athletics. He also frequented the Dean's List as well as the ACC-Academic Honor Roll.
