Chris Nash

Area of Expertise

Serving as Vice President, Mr. Nash is involved in all facets of occupier services with a primary focus in advising corporate and non-corporate users of real estate to include lease, purchase, lease restructure, space disposition, and financial analysis of commercial property. As a native Houstonian, Mr. Nash has nearly a decade of experience in the office sector of the commercial real estate industry and represents a wide scale of companies ranging from independently owned, boutique businesses to enterprise-level, publicly traded corporations with local, national and international locations. As a tenant representation specialist, clients leverage Mr. Nash's expertise in all phases of a transaction, resulting in the ability to make confident decisions supported by financial analysis and user-specific goals.

By implementing the motto of "you only have one thing in life, and that is your reputation" to both his professional and personal life, Mr. Nash delivers unprecedented results to his clients, as well as community and peers.
