Connor Duffy

Area of Expertise

Connor Duffy is a graduate of Florida State University, where he earned a degree in Real Estate and Finance from the nation's 5th-ranked real estate program. He began his career representing Howard Hughes Corporation's Office Portfolio in The Woodlands, TX, where he successfully completed over 100 lease transactions during his three-year tenure.

With a family background rooted in real estate across the country, Mr. Duffy brings a well-rounded and analytical approach to the industry—drawing on his expertise in finance and macro/microeconomics. This diverse foundation allows him to bring creative solutions and strategic insights to every assignment.

In early 2022, Mr. Duffy joined the Capital Markets team as a partner under the leadership of Todd Moore, focusing on advising developers and investors in the single-tenant and multi-tenant net lease sectors nationwide.

The Houston Capital Markets team is known for its deep financial expertise and sophisticated underwriting capabilities, enabling them to analyze, position, and market a wide range of real estate assets with precision.

Business and educational background

Prior to joining Colliers, he earned his BBA with a concentration in real estate from Florida State University and spent time working at NAI TALCOR gaining an understanding of the real estate industry and property management sector.
