AREA OF EXPERTISE

Corby Marx serves as a senior vice president in Colliers International | Chicago's Downtown Office Advisory Group specializing in office tenant representation. Over his 16-year career, he has focused on the Downtown Chicago office market and gained an extensive understanding of the real estate leasing process. Corby's practice focuses on providing counsel for a diverse group of clients including law, consulting, marketing, financial services, trading and technology firms. He is an expert in developing and executing real estate strategies which maximize their economic outcomes, all while ensuring real estate is always aligned with the company's short and long-term business operating objectives.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Young Professional of the Year Award, Transwestern (2008)
- National Rising Star Award, Transwestern (2006)
- Circle Award, CB Richard Ellis (2004)

BUSINESS AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Colliers, Corby spent nine years at Transwestern as senior vice president where he specialized in tenant representation. He began his real estate career at Insignia/ESG and later CB Richard Ellis following the merger of those two firms.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Corby serves on the Board of Advisors for Catholic Charities and was also involved with the Man of the Year Campaign for the Leukemia/Lymphoma Society.
