Area of Expertise

Edward Edson is an office leasing broker responsible for providing advisory and transaction services to emerging companies, as well as large corporate clients on a local, national and international level. Since joining Colliers in 2006, he has only focused on consulting with office tenants and developing innovative strategies for his clients in investment sales. Edward's diverse experience includes relocation, renewal, expansion, and disposition needs. He is a committed advisor helping clients make real estate decisions that are aligned with their strategic, financial, and operational objectives.

Business & educational background

Edward joined Colliers after his career with Hines Interests. While with Hines, Edward represented the owners of Bank of America Center's 1.3 million sq. ft. and assisted with the nearly 2 million sq. ft. within One and Two Shell Plaza. Prior to his leasing assignments, Edward was responsible for property management within Hine's 1100 Louisiana building's 1.3 million sq. ft. and BMC's state-of-the-art 1.5 million sq. ft. campus located in Houston's Westchase market.
