AREA OF EXPERTISE

Francis became a Principal of Colliers International | Chicago in 2007 and shares responsibility in overseeing the Suburban Office Advisory Group. He has been a real estate professional specializing in office leasing since 1988. He, along with partner Steve Kling, has completed approximately 3,500 real estate transactions for a total value of $8.0 billion. His experience includes representing entrepreneurial owners and developers such as Hines, CBRE Global Investors, Equus Partners and Highland Management to the publicly traded Equity Commonwealth REIT and the institutional ownership of Colony Realty Trust, AEW, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, Principal Financial, Prudential, RREEF, GE Capital and Allstate.

Francis concentrates on forming long-term relationships based on his market knowledge and expertise. Francis works in conjunction with his clients in developing and executing strategic marketing plans. His ultimate goal is to maximize the value of the asset and service the client.

BUSINESS AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Colliers in 2003, Francis spent 10 years at Grubb & Ellis Company and 6 years working with owner-developer William A. Rogers, Inc., gaining experience and market knowledge representing both landlords and tenants.
