Area of Expertise

Ina joined the Suburban Philadelphia Office Team of Colliers International in 2016. She has over 25 years of commercial real estate experience and has built a solid foundation of corporate clients through her landlord representation, tenant representation, and advisory service assignments.

In addition to her experience representing large portfolios of suburban office buildings, Ina has been assisting local and national tenants with their real estate needs and has specialized in advising women business leaders with their commercial real estate decisions and strategies.

Professional Accomplishments

Prior to joining Colliers, Ina spent 5 years at Stockton Real Estate Advisors representing both landlords and tenants. Prior to joining Stockton she provided in-house leasing and marketing expertise for major private and public landlords including Buccini/Pollin Group, Equity Office and Brandywine Realty Trust.

Ina is an active member in The Forum of Executive Women, serving on the Program Committee, a Board Member of the Lower Merion Historical Architectural Review Board and a committee member for helpusadopt.org.
