AREA OF EXPERTISE

Jeff is a principal of the Colliers | Chicago office, focusing on investment sales of Class A and B industrial and office properties in Chicago and throughout the Midwest, ranging in value from $5 million to $300 million. Jeff joined Colliers in 1995 as an analyst for the firm's Development Group and has ascended to be a principal of the company.

Jeff works with Steve Disse to service institutional real estate investors in Chicago and surrounding Midwest cities. They are consistently recognized as the top industrial capital markets professionals in Chicago. The team consistently holds a 50 to 60 percent market share of Chicago area industrial investment sales and has closed over $1.5 billion in sales over the last 24 months.

This past year Jeff and Steve received the 2019 NAIOP Industrial Investment Transaction of the Year Award for their sale of the Fountain Square Commerce Center in Bolingbrook, IL
