George Manley

Area of Expertise

George Manley specializes in industrial advisory services providing expertise to assist tenants and buyers in strategically finding the right space for their needs. He also works with owners and landlords to lease and sell their real estate assets.

Prior to joining Colliers, George has had extensive experience in servicing high value clients in the transportation and logistics industry. While at Hogan Transportation Companies, he gained valuable experience in business development and asset management. This included the marketing and leasing of heavy duty, class 7 & 8 trucks to distributors and manufacturers in both the greater Indianapolis, IN and Cincinnati, OH markets. While there, he earned the company's Distinguished Sales Achievement Award. By providing impeccable service to my clients, as well as innovative solutions, he earned incredible customer loyalty.

George is a graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with a major in Finance from the Romain College of Business in Evansville, IN. He also attended Indiana University in Bloomington, IN where he studied business for three years in the Kelley School of Business.

His passions include travel, golf, live music, and sporting events, particularly Indiana University basketball.
