John M. Palmieri

Area of Expertise

As an associate vice president for retail services with Colliers International, John Palmieri specializes in leasing regional shopping centers and representing national retail tenants throughout Arizona.

His ability to think creatively and adapt quickly to ever changing markets and his thorough knowledge of the Valley, John brings a unique skill set that allows him to easily identify opportunities and solutions for his clients.

He prides himself with the highest standard of integrity and professionalism. These characteristics have been integral and paramount to his success.

Business Background

John started his career with Merrill Lynch in the Wealth Management Group. Merrill Lynch provided John with all the tools necessary in developing and maintaining relationships with high-net-worth clients.

Additionally, he has a strong understanding of equity, bond, and derivatives' markets. After his time working in financial services, the tangible aspect of real estate and markets in general, compelled John to pursue his interest in real estate professionally.

With almost 20 years in real estate, he worked as Vice President for De Rito Partners where John was a top producer specializing in project leasing and sales.

Community Involvement

John is an active contributor to Brokers for Kids, a commercial real estate specific fundraiser benefiting charity partners such as Boys Hope Girls Hope, a charity focused on helping academically capable and motivated children in need by providing value-centered family-like homes, better opportunities, and education through college.
