AREA OF EXPERTISE

Jonathan Kingsley is a veteran of the commercial real estate industry, focusing on Class A agency and tenant representation services for office and industrial clients in South Florida and across the United States. He also provides investment and asset management consulting services to institutional clients.

Jonathan Kingsley and Stephen Rutchik, partners for 17 years, have built a team of ten passionate, driven commercial real estate professionals, offering their expertise to office and industrial occupiers and investors across South Florida. "Team Kingsley- Rutchik aligns our strategies with our clients' business goals and provides a wealth of accurate, specific market intelligence to support their real estate decisions."

BUSINESS BACKGROUND

Jonathan and his team joined Colliers International in 2015, after four years as Senior Vice President of Brokerage at Jones Lang LaSalle and an 8-year career as Managing Director and Executive Vice President of Grubb & Ellis Company where he was responsible for the delivery of services to tenants, owners and investors of commercial real estate across the region.

Jonathan and his team specialize in leasing transactions representing the needs of both landlords and tenants, giving them the diverse knowledge and ability to adapt to South Florida's unique real estate market challenges.
