Justin Sieczkowski

Area of Expertise

Justin Sieczkowski is a vice president with Colliers International, specializing in the sale and lease of industrial facilities; land sales to developers and users; build-to-suit facilities for sale or lease; and the sale of single and multi-tenant industrial facilities (investment properties).

He is a member of the top-producing industrial team with Paul Sieczkowski, senior executive vice president, who has nearly 40 years of experience in the Phoenix area.

Throughout the property marketing, negotiation and transaction process, Justin facilitates sales and leases that are beneficial to his clients. He is focused on helping clients achieve their commercial real estate objectives.

Monitoring current market conditions, Justin keeps clients fully informed about trends that impact their real estate decisions.

Clients benefit from Justin's skills in sales, customer relationship management, strategic planning, communications, and targeted prospecting. He is committed to providing quality service and building long-term client relationships.

Professional Accomplishments

- 2024 – CoStar Power Broker Award
- 2019 – Rookie of the Year by Colliers, Arizona
- 2019 – Nominated as NAIOP Rookie Broker of the Year
- 2017-2018 – Valley Partnership Advocate

Business Background

Justin joined Colliers International as a research associate for the Greater Phoenix market. He compiled market statistics for each property type, maintained sales and lease comp databases, monitored tenant activity, and conducted industry research using various in-house and on-line resources.

Previously, Justin was a corporate account executive at CDW, a leading multi-brand technology solutions provider. He was responsible for prospecting new business, processing technology quotes and orders, and growing a book of business across the Southwest region

Community Involvement

- Brokers for Kids, a fundraiser to benefit Boys Hope Girls Hope
- Colliers Holiday Adopt-a-Family
- Colliers AZ Cares, a charitable foundation that supports the local community
