AREA OF EXPERTISE

Lew Goldman is a Senior Investment Specialist who began his career at Colliers in 2005. Lew specializes in the sale and disposition of single-tenant net leased investments, sale-leasebacks and shopping centers across the United States. Lew works with a wide range of clients including 1031 exchange buyers, boutique investment groups, developers, private equity and REITs. He has closed in excess of $150,000,000 in transaction volume over the last three years alone. Lew is consistently one of the top producers within his Colliers office.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Lew is involved in Trout Unlimited, and serves as a Founder and Former Director of the Boise Chapter of Project Healing Waters, a program that encourages the physical and emotional rehabilitation of war veterans through fly fishing.

PERSONAL

Prior to his career in commercial real estate, Lew was a literary agent at one of Hollywood's largest talent agencies where he helped manage the careers of screenwriters.

Outside work Lew's priority is spending as much time as possible with his wife and three children. When time permits Lew is a passionate fly fisherman and can be found floating a river or roaming the beaches of Baja.
