Area of Expertise

Since 2005 Lincoln has been a leader in the Idaho commercial real estate industry. Much of Lincoln's focus has been on the Canyon County, Idaho market, but he completes transactions across the Northwest every year. Lincoln typically is involved in the completion of 175 transactions per year, consistently producing one of the highest transaction volumes in the industry. This level of production speaks to Lincoln's ability to produce information quickly for clients, solve complex issues efficiently, and deliver satisfy results for clients..

Lincoln has a proven track record of helping a broad range of local, regional, and national clients with negotiating complex transactions. Lincoln's broad experience has included hundreds of transactions in every product type including Investments, Land, Office, Industrial, Multi-family, and Retail totaling hundreds of millions of dollars in value.

Lincoln's wealth of commercial real estate knowledge combined with his education background have made him an expert in the field. This knowledge and experience has led multiple investors, contractors, lenders, property owners, tenants, and appraisers to turn to Lincoln first as a trusted resource in the commercial real estate industry. Lincoln has lived in Idaho his entire life which has provided him with many valued relationships across the state.

Community Involvement

In addition to real estate Lincoln coached at Columbia High School in Nampa, ID where he coached for ten years. During his time at Columbia he was an assistant coach and head coach for both the Track and Field and Cross Country programs. Lincoln has also served on multiple City of Nampa committees. Lincoln serves as a director on the Northwest Nazarene University Foundation Board which helps manage the University's endowment fund.
