Mariana Melero

Area of Expertise

Mariana Melero provides administrative, marketing and client support to Indianapolis brokerage teams.

Mariana brings an impressive background in team collaboration skills and operational support. Prior to joining Colliers, she held Administrative Assistant position at Kite Realty Group and previously at University of Houston — handling diverse responsibilities for their C-Level leadership.

Via her event management experiences, Mariana displayed impressive initiative and judgement, coordinating a multitude of assignments — vendor selection, check-in processes, set-up/tear-down procedures, and event cost management.

In her spare time Mariana enjoys getting to know the city by scooter. She also enjoys working out, traveling, and trying new restaurants.
