Matt Wickstra, CCIM, SIOR

Area of Expertise

My primary focus lies within industrial real estate brokerage, investment sales and land development.

Business and Educational Background

I have more than 20 years of experience in commercial real estate. My tenure in brokerage, combined with significant experience with financial planning and analysis, aids me as I seek creative and thoughtful solutions for my clients that will mitigate their risk and maximize their real estate opportunities.

My experience in commercial real estate is extensive. My career began in brokerage with an emphasis in industrial sales and leasing, land acquisitions and investment real estate. Over the years, I have also worked for a general contractor in sales and finance.

During my real estate career, I have gained expertise in many aspects of commercial real estate transactions from financial evaluation, environmental concerns and incentives, legal and entitlement processes, to general project due diligence matters.

My experience includes project planning through full project lifecycle for development services. I have served as an owner's representative on development projects ranging in size from $250,000 to projects exceeding $10,000,000 in value.
