

Meg Brown

Director, Capital Advisory, Equity Placement

Colliers International

BIOGRAPHY

Meg runs the Equity Placement business at Colliers International which sits within the Capital Advisory division of the firm. Meg focuses exclusively on equity distribution for all indirect real estate investments including funds, managed accounts, joint venture partnerships, club deals and buy side advisory services. She advises and represents third party managers based in Europe, the Americas and Asia Pacific and across all sectors and risk profiles.

Meg focuses exclusively on institutional investors based in Europe and to a lesser extent Asia and the Middle East. Her key investor relationships include pension funds, insurance companies, multi-managers, family offices and consultants as well as private equity and hedge fund investors.

Prior to joining Colliers Meg was part of JLL's Corporate Finance department on the Private Funds Advisory team and led the primary advisory distribution services for all of Europe except for Germany. Prior to this, she co-ran the liquidation of legacy CMBS/NPL portfolios of approximately $4.0BB USD at CR Investment Management. Meg has also held sales positions at Barclays Capital and CBRE and was part of the UK acquisitions team at LaSalle Investment Management.
