

NIKOLA ARAMBAŠIĆ, M.Arch.

Workplace Solutions and Project Management Associate

Nikola joined Colliers in 2016 as a Workplace Solutions and Project Management Associate focused on providing support in the field of office and retail development projects.

Nikola graduated in 2014 with the highest honours of “sum of cum laude” and with one of the highest average grades in college history from the Faculty of Architecture. His work was nominated as the best project for the academic year 2014-2015 at the international exhibition of the best graduate papers Archiprix. The work is exhibited at the show in Madrid and Chile and is selected in the top 30, out of a total of over 330 nominations.

In addition to studying in Zagreb, he also attended summer school “AA School London”.

During his studies, he participated in one of the biggest project development on building a private hospital in Baku, Azerbaijan.

Some of Clients in Nikola’s portfolio include renowned companies such as Electrolux, KPMG, Medikol Grupa, Q-Software, Qarachay Holding (Azerbaijan) and numerous private clients.