Anthony Karmin

Area of Expertise

Tony Karmin holds more than 35 years of commercial real estate experience, specializing in the representation of a diverse client base in office lease relocations and renegotiations, both locally and nationally. His client service includes structuring and negotiating commercial leases, developing comprehensive and strategic real estate plans and assisting with the acquisition and disposition of owned or leased properties.

Tony joined Colliers downtown Office Advisory Group in 2016

Professional Accomplishments

Tony was consistently recognized as a top producer at both Transwestern and CBRE. He ranked as a Top 25 National Producer at Transwestern every year from 2005 to 2015.

He is also an annual recipient at Colliers of the Everest Club since 2016, which honors the highest producers within the company.

Business and Educational Background

Prior to joining Colliers, Tony spent 10 years at Transwestern in their tenant advisory services group. There he was responsible for the oversight of the Chicago firm's development and served on the national board of directors. He previously served as a senior vice president with CBRE following the merger with Insignia/ESG and has also worked as a tenant representative at Frain Camins and Swartchild and Goldie B. Wolfe and Company.
